Dear All

for your eyes only: Richard Dearlove in pursuit of Henry Kissinger

G

Dear Jami. I hope that I am right in assuming you are still at this email address. And I should perhaps apologise for hitting you with this email when it really is quite sometime since we have been in touch and just we enter the holiday season. My reason for contacting you is Brexit related and a rather significant 'ask' of Henry and it may well be that this is something in which he would prefer not to be involved in which case I would of course thoroughly understand.
