

TO PRESIDENT MILLS, DEANS Amar, Holden, Green, Kamath, Kovačević, Lindsey, McKenzie, Mostov, Poggi, Rosner, Sundaram, Suzuki, the Board of Trustees, and NYU Leadership:

ON BEHALF of the past, present and future Jewish community of New York University, we write to you as a community that is scared, disappointed, and disillusioned about the safety and wellbeing of Jewish life on campus. The reality and illusions of safety on campus have almost completely disappeared, and NYU's refusal to take action against those who endorse pure, unadulterated hatred and promote violence is indicative that the university lacks both moral clarity and a principle-driven motivation to act.

OUR COMMUNITY IS DIVERSE. Our histories, backgrounds, and range of opinions on all topics lend to a community that promotes respectful discourse, civil disagreements, and exploration of ideas relating to how we express and practice our Judaism, as well as how we individually choose to extrapolate this ethno-religious and cultural identity. Still, collective threats waged against our community affect us all. Despite our differences, we stand shoulder to shoulder, indivisibly united in our commitment to ensuring the safety and wellbeing of Jewish students on campus.

NYU HAS FAILED in stopping the rise of hate on campus. What was once a beacon of diversity of thought, and an open market of ideas, mutual respect, and different perspectives, has devolved into an echo chamber of hate, violence, intimidation, and vitriol. NYU no longer fosters a safe, respectful, and welcome environment for students, as evidenced by recent events. Rather, the university is providing a "safe space" for evil to flourish under the guise of tolerance. Just days after the October 7 massacre—among the most heinous of terrorist attacks in modern history—the SBA President published a letter on NYU print blaming Israeli citizens for the terrorist attacks that occurred. Students were repeatedly documented tearing down posters of kidnapped individuals that were hung to raise awareness about the hostage situation. One student was harassed by pro-Palestinian peers, backed into a corner and forced to delete a video on his phone showing the incident. Protests have been organized by professors and students alike, in which slogans called for an "Intifada" and the elimination of the Jewish state. On Friday, October 20th, Bobst Library was violated by protestors, who transformed what should be a quiet, uncontroversial space into a lion's den of hate and anti-semitism. We ask you: Where is your condemnation? Where is your moral backbone? Where is the line drawn between free speech and incitement to violence?

NYU CONTINUES TO FAIL in its legal obligation to protect Jewish students. The conduct of students, student groups, and even faculty members creates a severe and pervasive hostile environment that interferes with the ability of Jewish students to participate in or benefit from the services, activities, and privileges provided by NYU. NYU is obligated under Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and applicable state and federal anti-discrimination laws, to address and remedy this hostile environment. It has not done so, despite years of notice of this pernicious environment.

NYU'S RESPONSE IS WEAK. Sparse and restrained statements released by the university are drastically insufficient to condemn, and combat, the vitriol and festering of hate that the university has facilitated by failing to establish and enforce reasonable boundaries for language and behavior at the school. By choosing not to adequately denounce it, the moral rot has snowballed into what we see today. Milquetoast statements against hate can be construed as mere lip service, and even condonement. Further, a recent notice emphasizing increased security at the school, although necessary, is not sufficient with regard to preventative measures, nor is it a long-term solution or a tactic for addressing the root causes of these issues.

WE TRIED reaching out. We scheduled meetings and sent emails. Yet, despite a strong current of efforts, NYU has willfully ignored us through weak words, weak actions, and indifference to our concerns. This astonishing passivity has led us to one unfortunate conclusion: NYU's Jewish students don't matter. The Jewish community at one point comprised more than 20% of NYU's student body, but currently stands at under 14%. When will it be zero? This is not an enigma: NYU is no longer a safe space for Jewish students. With no accountability, violence against us will continue to emerge, and will land in a place well beyond isolated incidents. This will be a consequence of NYU's silence and refusal to act.

WE ASKED FELLOW STUDENTS, ALUMNI AND DONORS TO SIGN THIS LETTER, demanding that NYU stand up for its Jewish community and prioritize our safety. They have signed to convey the message that our community's safety is not only valuable from the perspectives of the administration, student life, donor incentives, alumni legacies and a stronger civil society at large, but obligatory. It serves to underscore that hate will not be rewarded—it will be followed by the redirection of financial support. Our loyalty is not guaranteed.

WE DEMAND a change of culture at NYU. The university must leave its complacency and silence behind and immediately begin actively defending its Jewish community, as well as foster an environment that feels equivalent and equitable relative to that of any other student and group. That begins now with concrete actions:

- Creating a position in NYU leadership dedicated to combating anti-semitism
- Enforcing a policy disbanding clubs that utilize hate speech to promote violence and endorse terrorism
- Prosecuting students and faculty who deface property and/or use hate speech in the name of terrorism
- Ensuring additional and sustained security for Jewish students
- Establishing mandatory coursework in line with universal values, fact-based critical thinking, and civil discourse

NYU'S FIRST VALUE IS ACCOUNTABILITY: "As members of the NYU community, students are expected to uphold their responsibilities to maintain a safe and productive campus community... When these policies are violated, students will be held accountable and are expected to recognize how their actions and decisions affect the larger community." It is time for NYU to be held accountable. The Jewish people have been persecuted everywhere over millennia; let's not add NYU to the list.

NYU'S MOTTO IS Perstare et Praestare: "To persevere and to excel." NYU has created a culture that is approaching the opposite of that, in which it is increasingly difficult for its community, most of all its Jewish community, to persevere through an educational experience that emphasizes moral integrity, and consequently, to excel. The university, sinking into the quicksand of moral relativism under the guise of tolerance, has willfully ignited a fire that will be challenging to extinguish because it has lost its objective set of values, which serve as the very baseline from which we are to persevere and excel. Of course, we will persevere—that is not up for debate. The question we ask you, NYU, is: Will you stand with us
